

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

CAPT Tim O'Connor
Keystone Shipping Co.
One Bala Plaza East
Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004-1496

Dear Captain O'Connor,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains nine 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRF Safety Program Manager

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

Mr. John M. Collins
Marine Transport Lines, Inc.
100 Lighting Way, Suite 402
Secaucus, NJ 07094

Dear Mr. Collins,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains nine 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

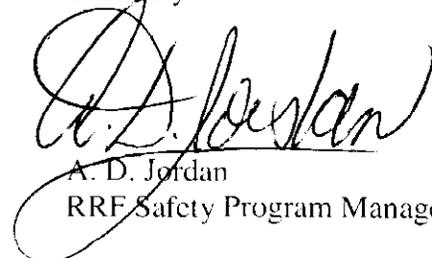

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRF Safety Program Manager

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

Ms. Donna Wood
American Overseas Marine Corp. (AMSEA)
116 E. Howard St.
Quincy, MA 02169-8712

Dear Ms. Wood,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains three 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRF Safety Program Manager

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

CAPT Coleman Cosgrove
Crowley Liner Services, Inc.
1163 Talleyrand Avenue
Jacksonville, FL 32206

Dear Captain Cosgrove,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains eight 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

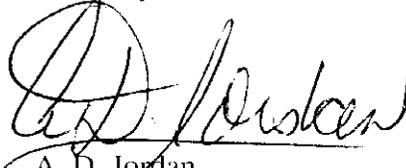

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRF Safety Program Manager

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

CAPT Vince Corry
Interocean Ugkand Management Corp.
Two Echelon Plaza
Suite 300
221 Laurel Road
Voorhees, NJ 08043-2349

Dear Captain Corry,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains nine 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

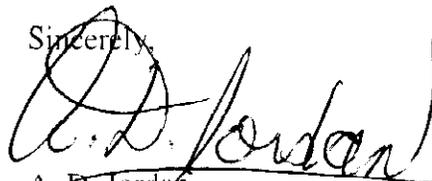

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRF Safety Program Manager

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

Mr. Ernie Otterspoor
Mormac Marine Enterprises, Inc.
100 Lighting Way, Suite 402
Secaucus, NJ 07094

Dear Mr. Otterspoor,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains five 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRF Safety Program Manager

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

Leonard LaGrappe
C/ODOT MARITIME ADMINISTRATION
MARAD SBS Warehouse, Building 168
1651 Viking Street, Alameda Point
Alameda, CA 94501-7554

Leonard,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains two 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRE Safety Program Manager

U.S. Department
of Transportation
MARITIME
ADMINISTRATION

400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

July 14, 2004

Mr. Dale M. Sirois
Pacific Gulf Marine, Inc.
401 Whitney Avenue
Suite 211
Gretna, LA 70056

Dear Mr. Sirois,

This package, forwarded via FEDEX, contains six 2-Pack Sets of Defibrillation Pads for the Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ships under your Ship Manager Contract. One 2-Pack of Defibrillation pads shall be forwarded to each ship, in accordance with the labels on the individual packages, within one week after receipt of this FEDEX package(s).

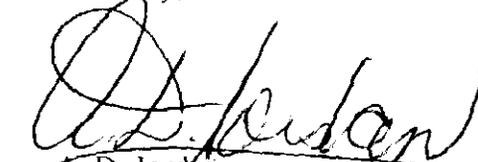

These Defibrillation Pads shall replace the pads that were included with the Defibrillators as part of the initial purchase, because the warranty on the original defibrillator pads has expired or will soon expire. Please instruct ship's personnel to dispose of the expired pads once they have been replaced. Disposal shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable requirements (if any).

If you have any questions, please contact MARAD, Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair, by telephone at 1.202.366.5071 or by FAX at 1.202.366.3702. Written queries may be sent to:

U.S. Department of Transportation
Maritime Administration, MAR-611
ATTN: Adrian Jordan
Division of Ship Maintenance and Repair
400 7th Street, SW, Rm 2119
Washington, DC 20590-0001

Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

A. D. Jordan
RRF Safety Program Manager